TANK TROUBLE

Recently in my home city at one of our largest hotels there was a meeting of agricultural products salesmen from all over the country. And two men were introduced to each other as follows:

"Mr. William Jememson I want you to meet Mr. Frederick Von Holten."

They really needed no introduction though; the last time they met was during World War II and on opposite sides of the fighting armies. It concerned one of the strangest chapters in our final attempt to smash Hitler. We had made our landing in Italy and Major William Jememson was in charge of the 14th Armored Division. With orders to proceed northward and wipe out the army before they had a chance to re-group their fighting forces. The Nazis were now standing alone and the small force that Benito Mussolini had tried to put together had wilted.

What we did not know at that time was that the German High Command was fighting for time. Time enough so that they could put some of their new inventions into the field. They had just perfected the final phase of the jet airplane. They were working on a missile that was to be "flown" by a volunteer and could do terrific damage. And they were getting ready a sort of people's army for a last stand and perhaps a counter attack.

Colonel Frederick Von Holten came from a long line of Prussian military officers. He was a capable fighting man and his orders were to smash to pieces any attempt by the Allied forces to push their tanks northward from Montecasino where the landing had been successfully made. He figured correctly that the tanks would take the highway northward through the Domani Valley. He gathered together the largest artillery pieces he could gather in short notice. And he set his trap for our tanks.

During the night he moved into position and waited. And when the tanks were within his artillery range, he let loose a barrage that was most destructive. His mission had been accomplished. He could not take those big guns with him so they were destroyed in order not to fall intact into our hands. Then he sent his message to Hitler.

"We have wiped out the entire American armored division. Their tanks are now nothing but smoldering ruins. We will yet attain our destined victory."

Came night and Major William Jememson looked over the picture of apparent defeat and disaster.

"We can patch up some of the tanks with parts from the others," suggested Captain Frank Davis. "We have the tools, we have the men and we have the will to win."

By noon of the next day there were enough tanks in good condition to do a lot of damage to the Nazi fighting force-if contact could be made. Then the Major got a brain-storm.

"If the railroad is still working we can head for it. Put the tanks on flat cars and try to cut off the enemy from ahead of them."

Fortunately, that railroad was relatively an old one and had not yet been electrified. There were flat cars available and some old steam locomotives. The tanks were loaded on the cars and the division-or what was left of it-waited until dark. Then they traveled all through the night. When morning came, the tanks unloaded at a place called Massina. They headed north and then cut southward. In time to come up with some of Hitler's best troops. The enemy was smashed to pieces. Definitely, from their viewpoint, something was wrong.

Field Marshal Kelsing came to the conclusion that Colonel Frederick Von Holten had betrayed him. And several special Gestapo men appeared before the startled Prussian officer and told him the news. He had exactly five minutes to put his affairs in order. Then he would be shot like a common traitor. But they figured incorrectly because his orderly was devoted to him completely. Before the astonished Gestapo men could realize what was happening a blazing Luger went into effect. They had all been turned into corpses.

The Colonel and his orderly got into a staff car and fled. They soon made contact with the Americans and surrendered to the victorious Major William Jememson.

DESTROY THEM ALL. THEY WILL BE TAKEN BY SURPRISE.
8

"THE MAN TARGET IS IN THE HOUSE," TALON'S COMBAT LEADER SAID TERSELY. "WE WILL BLAST IT INTO RUBBLE AS SOON AS WE HAVE FREED OUR LEADER. IT WILL BE EASY BECAUSE WE HAVE TAKEN THEM BY SURPRISE!"

WOOOOSHH!

KEEPING LOW UNTIL HE SAW A MAN CARRYING THE KIND OF EQUIPMENT HE NEEDED, SARGE STEEL SUDDENLY SWUNG INTO ACTION...

THE HELICOPTER LOWERED A PECULIAR APPARATUS...THE PILOT HAD RECOGNIZED SARGE STEEL...HE WAS THEIR PRIMARY TARGET.

THE MAN WITH THE STEEL FIST... BRING HIM UP! WE'LL GET RID OF HIM PERMANENTLY THIS TIME!

GOT TO GET THIS GUY'S ROCKET RIFLE AND JET BELT!

KRAK!

POW!

BLAM!

I'VE GOT ONE CHANCE! THE ONLY WAY TO DEFEAT THIS THING IS WITH IT'S OWN WEAPON!

WOOOSSS!

THE ROCKET SMASHED THROUGH STEEL, AND CREATED CHAOS INSIDE...

YOU FOOLS! HE HAS DESTROYED US!

WHAM!

THE WRECKAGE WAS FALLING BUT NOT SARGE STEEL... HE HAD ON A CAPTURED BELT-JET AND HE ZOOMED AWAY...
THEN, THE BATTLE WAS OVER AND THE CITIZEN'S COURT WAS READY TO PRONOUNCE JUDGMENT! AS A COURTESY, HERR WOLFFHUNDT PROPOSED THAT SARGE STEEL DECIDE TALON'S FATE...
I WANTED TO SUGGEST THIS, GENTLEMEN! LET TALON GO FREE!
FREE? ARE YOU INSANE? HE WILL GO BACK TO HIS ORGANIZATION AND...
OH NO, HE WON'T! WE'LL LET IT LEAK OUT...THAT TALON BETRAYED HIS PEOPLE TO US...IN RETURN FOR HIS FREEDOM! THEY THOUGHT THEIR ATTACK WOULD SURPRISE US...BUT WE WERE READY FOR THEM!
NO! YOU WON'T DO THAT! IT'S INHUMAN! THEY'LL HUNT ME LIKE A MAD DOG..
YOU'LL SPEND THE REST OF YOUR LIFE RUNNING, TALON! YOU'LL CHANGE MASKS AND IDENTITY... BUT YOU'LL NEVER KNOW A MOMENT'S PEACE! YOU'RE DOOMED!
GO, TALON...YOU WERE THE HUNTER... NOW YOU'LL BE HUNTED INSTEAD! RUN...YOU'LL NEVER STOP RUNNING AGAIN!
END
THUS, IT ENDED... IN TRIUMPH FOR THE COMMITTEE OF FREEDOM... IN VICTORY FOR SARGE STEEL, SPECIAL AGENT! BUT IT'S A BATTLE THAT NEVER ENDS. CAN SARGE STEEL SURVIVE FOR LONG IN THIS VICIOUS WAR WAGED BY EVIL MEN? SEE OUR NEXT ISSUE OF SARGE STEEL, SPECIAL AGENT!
